MARINE ITEMS.

The propellers Plymouth and Mayflower, from Buffalo, arrived safely yesterday, bringing considerable amounts of merchandize, &c., for the city and for merchants in the interior. They bear marks of their encounters with the ice, being considerably cut around the bows, and a broad line of paint worn off all along the water line. The Plymouth brings 187 tons mdze, 28 bbls oysters, 10 do cider, 15 do whiskey, and 88 do apples. The Mayflower has 288 tons mdz, and 175 bbls oysters.

Much to the relief of our insurance Companies and others interested, they bring intelligence that the schrs. L. J. Farwell and G. D. Norris, both bound to this port, the former with a cargo of railroad iron from Kingston, Canada, and the latter with a cargo of salt, were at the Manitous, on their way up, having suffered no material damage. These vessels have been missing for a long time, and fears were entertained for their safety.

The tug Salvor brought in the schooner Falcon, leaking very rapidly, and also the schooner Minnie Kinne, which has been ashore at the Manitous. The latter leaks but little. Part of her cargo of oats was thrown overboard.

The steamer Huron arrived from Chicago, and went on to Two Rivers. She took on here 16 tons merchandize, 12 bbls beef, 10 do pork, and 57 hides.

Advices received yesterday state that the bark Hans Crocker, hence for Buffalo, would get into lake Erie Thursday, and that the schooners Dickinson, Rival, Dreadnought, Convoy, and W. H. Stevens reached Lake Erie on Wednesday night.

GREAT FRESHET IN BUFFALO CREEK.—VESSELS DAMAGED.—From the Buffalo Express we learn that on Monday last the heavy rains caused a freshest and a breaking up of the ice in Buffalo Creek, which came rushing down in a perfect avalanche, carrying with it the steamer Empire State, schrs. L. B. Shepard, N. P. Goodel, Wm. Fiske, A. J. Rich and Arcturus, and the propellers Jersey City and Rocket.

The propeller Mendota had her smoke stack carried away, and every thing from her upper deck. The Jersey City had her bulwarks badly stove. The Fiske, Rich, Arcturus and others, were badly damaged. The propeller Baltic was badly riddled. The schr. M. S. Scott, of Milwaukee, slightly damaged.

About half-past five o'clock, the pressure of water and ice became so great that the blockade of vessels gave way, and they were swept down the creek carrying many others with them, and at the foot of Main street they brought up again. The Rocket and schr. Circassia were carried into the slip and are safe. The schrs. Arcturus and Fiske were carried into the lake, but were afterwards towed back.

☞ The propeller McQueen arrived in port yesterday from St. Joseph, where she went to haul off the schooner Enos, ashore near there. When she reached schooner, however, the underwriters, Captain and crew had abandoned her, and she did nothing to her. She sailed from St. Joseph to this port within six hours—not bad time for such weather.

The crew of the schr. Souvenir—ashore there—came over in the May Queen.—Chicago Press.

☞ We are informed that yesterday, at Fort Colborn, propeller Ogdensburgh and schooner Acontius and Ruby arrived there, and went into winter quarters, so as to be above the ice in the spring. The ice in the Welland Canal is about five inches thick. An ice breaker was going though to open navigation, and probably got through last evening.—Buffalo Com. 2d.

THE CANAL.—We are informed this morning at the Collector's office, that the boat sunk in the lock at Montezuma has been raised; that the tugs there have been re-manned; and that the canal is open between Lockport and Tonawanda. Three boats have left Rochester with the intention of going through to tide-water. The belief among some of our forwarders now is, that nearly everything on the canal will reach its destination. It is a consumation devoutly to be wished.—Ib.

☞ The Forest Rose, the vessel which struck Racine pier during the recent gale and put out again without a soul on board, has been driven ashore between St. Joseph and Kalamazoo.

ANOTHER INVENTOR DEAD.—George Stevens, of Mayville, Dodge County, died with Consumption on the 2nd of this month. He was a well-respected young man, just starting in life, an inventive genius, having recently taken out a Patent. His loss to the community will be greatly felt.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Mr. STIMSON, Editor of the New York Day Book, died suddenly in the Long Island cars Monday afternoon.—He left the depot in the 3:45 train for his residence, near Cypress Halls, accompanied by his sons. Upon issuing from the tunnel in Atlantic street he was discovered to be dead. His death was supposed to have been caused by disease of the heart.

OSHKOSH COMMERCIAL BANK RE-OPENED.—We are glad to be able to learn that the Oshkosh Commercial Bank re-opened its doors yesterday morning, and is now doing its regular business as usual. They had, as they alleged, ample assets in their vaults to meet every liability, and they have met and settled every claim with an ease and promptness that has sent every creditor away perfectly satisfied of their stability and good faith. All of their customers have expressed their entire faith in the bank and its officers, and their determination to continue their business with it.—Democrat.

GOOD FARMING.—Milton Barlow, our farmer citizen, informs us that he has raised the following amounts on his farm up the La Crosse Valley, about eight miles from this city, viz: 3,000 bushels of oats, 1500 bushels of corn, 700 bushels of wheat, 500 bus potatoes and a barn full of pumpkins. The yield of grain would have been 25 per cent better, but for the excess of growth and damage from lodging.

Mr. B. has 240 acres in his farm, of which 125 is cultivated. He employed four hands, keeps about sixty head of cattle, and is without question the most extensive farmer in this county.—There is but one farmer who beats him in Monroe County, and that is Wm. Austin, of Leon, who works 220 acres. If our land speculators generally, would take pattern of these men, they would do some good to community, and credit to themselves.—La Crosse National Dem.

From the Oswego Times, Nov. 23.

THE ANTELOPE.—NAMES OF THOSE LOST AND SAVED.—We published yesterday an account of the loss of the schooner Antelope, from a Chicago paper, but the following additional particulars we are permitted to copy from a letter written by John Budds, 1st mate of the Antelope, to Messrs. Penfield, Lyon & Co., dated at Colomo, Mich., 23d instant:

STATEMENT FROM ONE OF THE SURVIVORS.

Having been saved from the wreck of the schooner Antelope, I am able this morning to send you the sad news, the loss of life as well as vessel and cargo, which lies a wreck six miles north of St. Josephs, on the shore of Michigan. To relate the whole of what I have witnessed, I am not able to do by writing. The Antelope struck on the shore Friday, November 20th, at 5 o'clock P. M. These that escaped from the wreck were not taken off till Sunday, 21st, 11 A. M. Two men left in the rigging were frozen.—Two were washed overboard. One started from the wreck to swim ashore, but he did not go twenty feet before he went down, and was not seen again. There were five who escaped from the wreck, and two kind and stout hearted men, who made several attempt before they reached the wreck, we owe our lives. Those that are saved have got their feet and some of their hands frozen. I am just able with the right hand to pen this sad tale. Two days and three nights the pumps could not be left. Being covered with ice, both crew and vessel, we thought the Antelope would have foundered in the lake before striking shore. The following are the names of those.

SAVED.

John Budds, 1st mate,
Moses Seeley, 2d mate,
Thomas Puckman, seaman, who I think will not recover, being badly frozen,
Arthur Clarkson, seaman,
Charles Belobar, seaman.

DROWNED OR FROZEN.

George W. Budds, captain, was washed overboard.

John and Thomas, (the remainder of their names I do not know, or where they resided—in Oswego, I think,)

Thomas Burton and Frank Eaver, were frozen in the rigging.

We are most thankful for kind assistance.—Seeing one going after another, we thought no one would escape to make known what we have suffered. This comes from one of the survivors.

JOHN BUDDS,
Mate of the schooner Antelope.

CITY MISSIONS.—Reverend Mr. PEDELUPE, on Tamarack street, next to the corner of West Water. Services, in German, at half past 10 A. M. to-morrow.

MILWAUKEE MUSICAL SOCIETY.—Pursuant to a resolution recently passed at a meeting of the society, none but members and strangers will hereafter be admitted to the concerts and operas,

In answer to frequent enquiries concerning the admission, duties and privileges of members, I copy the following from the constitution of the society.

All members are required to pay to the Treasurer, an admission fee of two dollars each on becoming members, and the sum of fifty cents monthly thereafter.

The members have the right:

1. To attend the monthly concerts for members without extra charge.

2. To be accompanied to said concerts by two ladies without charge.

3. To introduce strangers on payment of fifty cents for each such stranger.

Opera tickets for members as well as strangers, may be procured at 50 cents each.

Those wishing to be admitted as members, will please call on the Treasurer, Mr. Charles Kupper, or at Niedecken's.

A. D. ROSENTHAL,
dec5l745d2t Secretary.

AN EMBARRASSING SITUATION.—The enterprising local of the Wisconsin has discovered a second Mrs. Partington in the person of a young lady, the "darter" of her mother. The circumstances, under which the discovery was made, as we learn them from other sources, must have been peculiarly embarrassing to a young man of such tender "feelinks" as our local friend.—Does he take?

A RUNAWAY.—A day or two since, a German was seen driving along in front of our office, his wagon minus one of the front wheels, the driver evidently unconscious of the trouble, though "mighty uneasy" in his seat, and evidently full of lager. On being hailed, and asked what had become of his wheel, he looked puzzled for a moment, and answered, "Vy, somepody runned away mit him!" The wheel was found two blocks away, near the Oneida street bridge.

ADLER'S NEW BRICK BLOCK.—In another column will be found a notice of W. Laidlaw, announcing the completion of Mr. Adlers new Brick Block. It comprises four elegant brick tenements, which are offered for rent. Those who, notwithstanding these hard times, can afford to enjoy the luxury of an elegant first class residence, will do well to see Mr. Laidlaw without loss of time, in order to secure one.

FUN FOR SPORTSMEN.—All the sportsmen of the city, and great many others, will be wending their way towards the Layton House to-day, where a "pigeon shoot" is to take place at 12 o'clock. It is a pleasant ride to the Layton House, and there is a good omnibus line running there. Col. Crounse extends an invitation to all the sportsmen of the vicinity.

CITY MISSIONS.—The Rev. Mr. PEDELUPE, of the Episcopal City Missions, will officiate to-morrow afternoon, at the house on TAMARACK STREET next to the corner of West Water. Service in French, to commence at half-past 3 o'clock.—Subject of discourse, Why God has given wealth to men.

ESCAPED DROWNING.—A young woman while dipping a pail of water from the river in the rear of the "Home" saloon day before yesterday, fell in, and after struggling sometime amongst the floating pieces of ice, was rescued by some men who were luckily close by at the time.

THE FURNITURE of Alderman Taylor, corner of Second and Sycamore streets, 4th ward, can be seen to-day between the hours of 11 A. M. and 4 P. M. The sale takes place Monday morning at 10 o'clock at his house.

ADVERTISING.—We commend the following remarks from the St. Louis Democrat, to our advertising friends. The application is as good for Milwaukee as St. Louis. We hope some one may profit by the remarks. That paper says: "There has never been a period within our remembrance when the benefits of advertising and the folly of retrenching in this department of business expenses in dull times, were quite so palpable as at present. The most careless observer cannot fail to note the difference between the non-advertising and the advertising stores, as he passes along our streets. In the former there is solitude and silence—in the latter, life, activity, and the hum of bargain-seeking crowds. If there be a merchant who doubts the utility of challenging public attention through the newspaper press, let him air his scepticism in the establishments which are in constant communication with the world of consumers through this medium. "I don't believe in advertising," is the ipse dixit of a mind afflicted with something approaching to judicial blindness. Sulky merchants, who mistake obstinacy for dignity, and refuse to descend to the courtesy of telling the public what goods you have to sell, and what prices you will take for them, we ask, "What are you doing?" We say, you are sitting in your salesrooms, wrapped up in the solitude of your own originality, as free from profitable intrusion as if each of you were a mercantile Marius crouching amid the ruins of a commercial Carthage.—Deny the fact if you can! It is notorious as the sun. Long-headed firms who keep en rapport with the public through the business columns or the press, what are you doing? It is unnecessary to "pause for a reply. Work-weary salesmen and overtask cashiers will testify that the "pressure" of a cash retail business, created and stimulated by wholesale advertising, beats all the other "pressures of the day."

ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—We republish below the law of last session for the relief of members of the Fire Department in this city, as its provisions now come into operation:

AN ACT for the relief of active members of Fire Companies in the City of Milwaukee.

SEC. 1. That every active fireman, who shall belong to any regular organized fire company in the City of Milwaukee, whose property, whether real or personal, shall be hereafter taxed, shall be entitled to receive from the Foreman and Secretary of the Company to which he belongs, a certificate that he is an active member of such Company; and such fireman, upon presentation of such certificate to the City clerk of the City or Milwaukee shall receive from said Clerk an order on the Treasurer of said city, requiring the said Treasurer, on receipt of said order, to cancel the general City taxes assessed upon one thousand dollars in value of the real and personal property of such fireman.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer upon presentation of such order shall receive the same in payment of the city taxes of the fireman, for whose benefit such order is issued, assessed upon one thousand dollars worth of real and personal property of such fireman which shall be taxed, and if such fireman shall have less than one thousand dollars worth of real and personal property which shall be taxed, then said Treasurer shall receive such order in payment for the general city taxes assessed upon the amount of property of the said fireman which shall be taxed. But such certificate shall not be receivable in payment of any special taxes or assessments.

SEC. 3. The orders issued by the City Clerk as herein provided, shall be issued to the fireman entitled to the same by the certificate of the Foreman and secretary of the Company to which he belongs, and shall not be transferable, nor used in payment of any taxes except the city taxes assessed to the fireman to whom such order is issued, and the same shall be void in the possession of any person other than the fireman who is lawfully entitled thereto.

SEC. 4. No fire company in the city of Milwaukee shall be allowed more than seventy members, and any Foreman and Secretary of any fire company who shall sign a certificate as herein provided for any person who is not an active member of such company shall be fined fifty dollars each, for each offence, and if such Foreman and Secretary shall sign and issue such certificates to more than seventy members in any one year, they shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars each for each certificate over seventy, which they shall issue: such fines shall be collected in such manner as the Common Council of the City of Milwaukee shall direct, and when collected, shall be paid into the City Treasury and applied to the support of the poor of the City of Milwaukee.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect from its publication.

WYMAN SPOONER,
Speaker of the Assem'y.
ARTHUR MCARTHUR,
Lt. Gov. and Pres't Senate.

Approved March 6th, 1857.
COLES BASHFORD.

DISTRIBUTION OF BREAD TO THE POOR.—The Messrs. HECKER, extensive bakers in the 7th Ward, New York City, have stated publicly that nobody in the that Ward shall starve this winter for want of bread, and make a daily gift of a large number of loaves to the needy.

The "Sons of Malta" in Chicago have made a donation of 2,000 loaves of bread to the poor, to be distributed by the Relief Society.

In Cincinnati, one "Billy Birch," made a distribution of 1,000 loaves. The scene is thus described by the Gazette:

At 11 o'clock the crowd began to ascend the stairs at the entrance on Walnut street, at the head of which, in the hall, the thousand loaves were piled like a monument, and by them stood Mr. Birch with two or three assistants, to deal out one, two or three loaves to the various applicants, as appearances should give evidence of their necessity. As each was served in turn, the line passed out of the Hall through the entrance in Fourth street, where Deputy Marshal Andy Grilla rendered efficient service in keeping the passage-way clear. Mothers with children hanging on to their dresses, and little ones in arm, were freely supplied. One old lady, scarcely able to see her way, came tottering through the crowd, and her basket being filled, she departed with the prayer, "May God never let you want bread!"

Another, in a dilapidated silk that gave evidence of years of service, and had probably been drawn forth from its safe depository to give eclat to Thanksgiving Day, timidly presented her basket, without turning her eyes upon the crowd of spectators, and then quietly withdrew, as though she would conceal from the world her poverty without compromising her pride. "How many brothers and sisters have you?" said the bread-dispensing minstrel to a bright little German lad, who came next in turn. "Three sir," promptly answers the boy. "There's a loaf for each one"—and the recipient of such an unexpected share of Thanksgiving bounty fairly dropt down the stairs to gladden the hearts of his brothers and sisters with his treasures. And thus the scene went on for an hour, and many a heartfelt prayer was breathed for blessings on the head of the "cheerful giver." A kind word, and a cheerful smile and a supply of bread, were ready for all, and if honest wishes for peace and enjoyment avail anything in softening a man's pillow and inducing pleasant dreams, Billy Birch received his full share of hapiness last night.

Will not somebody in our city earn such pleasant dreams?

"WESTERN FREIGHT EXPRESS CO."—New Firm, Messrs. HATHEWAY, FORBES & Co., at No. 280 East Water street, have formed a copartnership in the Freight Express business over the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. They offer to give prompt attention to the safe transit of goods, and to make purchases, sales, and collections for their customers.

OPERA ON MONDAY.—The grand opera of "Norma" will be performed by our Musical Society, at Young's Hall, on Monday evening. The chorus and Orchestra will be unusually full and effective, and the leading parts will be well sustained.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. Dr. PYPER will deliver on Sunday morning, (service at 10½ A. M.) the sixth lecture of his series on the "Characteristic of the Times as seen from a Bible standpoint." Subject of to-morrow's discussion, "Signs of the Times."

POLICE COURT, Dec. 4.—Elizabeth Hunter, drunk fined $3. This woman was on her way from Fond du Lac to Chicago, to which place she had a through ticket. She had no money, and the police justice discharged her on conditions that she would immediately continue her journey.

Margaret Kraney for a similar offence was fined the same amount.

DISORDERLY.—Wm. Lindrock, fined $3 and costs, J. W. Allen, fined $3 and costs, and J. Gibbs, fined $1.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—John Dowling, fined $5 and costs, for battering a friend of his.

COMMITTED.—Two young men named John Newman, and James Clark, were examined on a charge of stealing $25 from the person of Peter Johnson. The former was committed to jail, in default of $500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury, and the latter was discharged, as the evidence was not sufficient to show that he was guilty of the charge.

STEALING TIMBER.—Two Bohemians named William Kutzka, and Henry Krila, were arrested by a policeman just for stealing timber in the 5th Ward, and committed upon being examined in default of $100 bail, each to appear at Circuit Court.

AMUSEMENT TO NIGHT.—This evening there is a benefit for Mr. Gardiner at Gardiner & Swaney's Concert Hall, on Main street. There is an excellent bill for the occasion, and we notice upon it the names of Messrs. R. J. Miller and J. H. Jones, late of the Metropolitan Theatre Troupe, who have volunteered to appear, in order to make the entertainment as interesting as possible.—There is to be a presentation of a silver trumpet and goblet to two of the fire companies, and no doubt the firemen will turn out en masse. The company which sells the most tickets, gets the trumpet, which cost $75, and the one which sells the next largest number is to have the goblet. There is considerable rivalry among some of the companies to get the trumpet. There will be lots of fun, and we hope the benefit will be a substantial one for Mr. Gardiner.

BUCK BEER!—It won't do to forget that this is "buck beer" day at the Plank Road Brewery Beer Hall, No. 222 East Water street. Miller expects to receive a call from all his friends and the rest of mankind to-day.

Y. Tribune, an article published some time since in that paper, in relation to the price of wheat, the possibility of shipments from abroad, this country, and the policy, on the part of holders, of expecting much higher prices. We know that the idea is very generally entertained that before spring opens, prices must advance largely. This article takes quite opposite ground, it will be seen, and its figures deserve attention.

☞ The propeller Michigan came into port with a cargo of merchandize for Milwaukee and Chicago. She touched here and took a quantity of freight and some passengers for Macdinaw, and sailed again. She reports 15 miles of ice still in the upper end of the lake.—Det. Adv., 2d.

WELLAND CANAL.—Mr. Matthews, the agent of the N. T. Co., received a dispatch from the Canal yesterday morning, stating that the propeller Young America had got out of the canal, and the afternoon, Lady of the Lake and Bay State would get out yesterday. The ice in the canal is still very strong.—Ib.

NEWS BY THE SAM WARD.—The steamer Sam Ward, Capt. Fish, which has for some time past been running between Milwaukee and Two Rivers, arrived here this morning to lay up for the winter. The owners of the steamer D. R. Martin and James Navagh, and the Captain of the Agate, came down on the Sam Ward.

The D. R. Martin is on a reef rock, (five miles above Presque Isle light,) with one or two holes in her bottom, and seven feet of water in her hold and about nine feet outside. She lies fair, and an attempt will, no doubt, be made to get her off. Her cargo of coal might be saved.

The Jones Match is now in a good place, and it is thought she can live all winter in her present position. Her cargo consists of 120 tons of iron, salt and goods, which will be saved. Her mate, Leonard, and three other men, besides Capt. J. A. Baker, of Oswego—is entirely new, and worth about $16,000.

The Agate will probably go to pieces.

☞ The Rescue arrived to day from below, with the schooners Red Hill, of Milwaukee, and the Lily Dancey of Goderich. These are the first sail vessels that have arrived from Lake Erie since the great "freeze up." There is still considerable ice about the head of the Lake.—Ib.

The Craddock Trial.

Special Despatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 2.

The examinations in the Craddock murder case occupied the Court all day. John Miller, the principal witness for the State, was under examination, which was not yet concluded when the Court adjourned. Miller confesses to a participation in the murder—states distinctly how Craddock was waylaid, and implicates all the parties under arrest. The cross-examination was most rigid, but Miller's story was straight and consistent throughout. The crowd in attendance was very large, but there was no demonstration.

Sinking of the Steamer Alleghany—Loss of Life—Boat and Cargo a Total Loss.

From the St. Louis Democrat, Dec. 1.

The Allegheny, which left this port yesterday afternoon, at two o'clock, under command of Captain C. G. Wayne, when opposite Quarantine Island, fourteen miles below the city, struck a snag, which raked her fore and aft, tearing almost her entire bottom out. She swung with her bow up stream, and commenced sinking rapidly in 17 feet water. The deck passengers were in imminent danger, many of them jumping into the water, and were, with the exception of one man, saved. An incident occurred which showed the intrepidity of our boatmen. One of the deck passengers, a female, was in an upper birth on the lower deck, so much intoxicated that she was incapable of helping herself, and would undoubtedly have been drowned had not Mr. Cain, the mate, secured an axe, and cutting the cabin floor open, jumped and succeeded in rescuing the poor creature from certain death. A woman with her child leaped overboard, but was rescued—the child reported lost. Four or five men, deck passengers, seized the yawl and paddled over to the island, where they were left as a punishment for their disgraceful and heartless conduct.

The steamer James H. Lucas, from New Orleans, in the most prompt and noble manner came to the rescue and took off the passengers, furnishing them with comfortable quarters and a good supper without charge.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the popularity that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now has. It is Restorative has passed through the ordeal of innumerable fashionable toilets, and the ladies, wherever they have tested it, pronounce it a peerless article. They find, where the hair is thinned, that it creates a fresh growth—that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the fibres to shoot forth anew—that it dissolves and removes dandruff, prevents grease, restores the hair to its original color when grayness has actually supervened, gives a rich lustre, imparts the softness and flexibility of silk to the hair, and keeps it always luxuriant, healthy and in full vigor.—*N. SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMB'R 5

Some few of the democratic papers in the free states, for reasons which have not yet appeared, and with what sincerity may well be doubted considering their past conduct, have of late expressed themselves in very decided terms against the carrying out of the programme of the faction in Kansas with which, hitherto, they have been closely allied, and now insist that the people shall be allowed to vote upon their State Constitution. Thereupon these immaculate presses, forgetful of, and desirous to have others forget, all the past, roll up their eyes with holy fervor, and call upon the people to see how fair and just they are!

Late repentance is better than none, surely; and we are glad to see that some of the democratic press are now disposed to do justice; but humility best becomes them. The people do not forget, so soon, nor forgive so easily.

When the hitherto closed gates of Kansas were opened that the hounds of Slavery might enter in, the Republican press denounced the act as an outrage upon right—a violation of a solemn compact. We were not by these now repentant democratic presses with abuse because, said they, we were not willing to let the people have their way in Kansas.

When the free settlers, who had flocked to Kansas, were hunted down by the minions of the Black Fiend—when they were cheated at their elections—when their towns were sacked, their dwellings burned, and they robbed of their little all—when the free state men were boldly murdered in the highway—when their leaders were imprisoned—when laws were made for them by ruffians from another State—when U. S. troops were sent to enforce these laws—when men who had been prominent in committing and urging on these outrages were appointed to office by the Democratic Administration—we exposed and denounced all these things; and we were met by the now repentant presses, with nothing but sneers, and charges of falsehood and exaggeration—with uttering "Black Republican lies"—and in their slang phrase, "shrieking for Kansas." It is notorious that the scoundrels who perpetrated all of the above outrages in that unhappy Territory had their chief encouragement from the course of the united Democratic press of the North.

Now, when these presses find themselves scorned to the wall by their ultra-Southern allies, who demand that every particle of decency and self-respect shall be given up, and the culminating point of the Kansas iniquity shall be tardy reached, they feel that to yield this last point would be to lose forever their hold upon any of the free states, and they shrink, and call upon all the gods to save them. They protest that they were for "popular sovereignty" all the while—that they abhorred the outrages confessed to have been committed in Kansas, and they protest that they will not submit to the last step in the game of their pro-slavery allies. They repent, but their repentance is that of the quarrelsome, wicked man, who feeling that his end was approaching, sent for his injured neighbor, and confessed his error, but ended by saying that "if he recovered, all should go on as before."—Such is the spirit of our at present repentant democrats, in view of the retribution threatened by the people, and which they have only warded off by deceptive promises. Let them escape this time, and they mean to go on as before.

New York Official Vote.

Clapp, Republican,	177,425
Tucker, Democrat,	195,482
Putnam, K. N.	66,882

The vote last fall for President was:

Fremont,	274,705
Buchanan,	195,878
Fillmore,	124,604
Total vote in '55,	559,187
" " '57,	439,799
Decrease,	155,388

It thus appears that in spite of the accessions to the Democratic party from the ranks of the Know-Nothings, which gave the former the victory at the late State election, they did not reach the Fremont vote of '56 by nearly 80,000.

SPEAKER OF THE ASSEMBLY.—The "Sentinel" is out for Hon. F. S. Lovell, for Speaker of the Assembly. The Republican members may wish to say something on this subject, but they have got their cue, and can now go for Lovell.—Madison Argus.

"The Republican members," who alone have a "say" on this subject, will undoubtedly do, as they see fit, in regard to the selection of a Speaker. The Sentinel, so far from attempting to give them their "cue," expressly disavowed any any such wish, or purpose. What we said about Mr. LOVELL, no man in the State, Democrat, or Republican, will gainsay.

RESULT OF THE INVESTIGATION.—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin states that the result of Messrs. Eli Silver, J. T. Hale and J. C. Bomberger's investigations into the affairs of the Pennsylvania Bank show the liabilities to be about $2,000,000, and the assets upwards of $2,700,000, and to consist of bills receivable, bonds, mortgages, real estate, &c. The receivables comprise the larger portion of the assets, and among them are numerous protested and renewed notes. The real estate comprises the magnificent banking house on Chestnut street, and some other properties—the banking-house being the larger portion.

MARTINWOOD & MISS. R. R. BONDS.—Messrs. Foster & Thompson, Attorneys, Wall street, New York, caution all persons against purchasing any of the bonds of the above Company except those numbered from 1 to 50 inclusive, alleging that the others have "been surreptitiously obtained;" also against purchasing Menasha village bonds from 1 to 27 inclusive, "as the same were improperly obtained, the Company having received no consideration therefor."

THE DUBUYS CASE.—The Madison papers are full of the evidence in this case. The defence was examining witnesses yesterday afternoon.—Quite a number of the old Wisconsin pioneers have been examined in relation to Dubuy's character, and to his long occupation of the property in dispute. The defence take the ground that as he was in rightful possession of the property, vital resistance to a trespasser attempting to expel him, was justifiable.

NEW YORK BANKS.—The following comparative statement shows the condition of the New York Banks now, and at the same period last year:

COMPARATIVE RECAPITULATION.

	Nov. 28, 1856.	Nov. 28, 1857.
Capital,	$54,243,000	$63,519,000
Loans,	105,585,476	94,965,130
Specie,	12,110,334	24,203,145
Circulation,	5,010,256	5,520,783
Gross Deposits,	88,524,264	79,509,225

Undrawn,	61,614,349	64,307,381
In Sub—Treasury,	12,268,997	4,895,219

The amount of specie now held by the New York Banks—upwards of twenty-four millions is much the largest amount of coin they have ever had in their vaults.

Minnesota Canvass.

The Board of Canvassers met at St. Paul on the 24th to count the votes cast at the late election. The Minnesotian says:

The Secretary of the Territory informed the Board that the returns from the Registers of the different counties were not all in yet.

The Board therefore adjourned to Wednesday, the second day of December.

Probably all of the bogus supplements would be in by that time.

The Republicans of Minnesota have been making earnest and successful efforts to unravel the tangled web of fraud manufactured by their Democratic opponents, in their determination to get Sibley the certificate as Governor elect, in spite of the will of the People. The Minnesotian charges that at a meeting of Government office-holders and leading Democratic politicians, held at the American House, at St. Paul, on Sunday, Oct. 24th, it was found that about 650 votes were wanted to elect Sibley, and it was resolved to have those votes at all hazards. The Minnesotian goes on to expose the frauds, as follows:

Our information is, that at least one poll book was forged, then and there, in the very "presence," and this is believed to be that of St. Vincent, Pembina county. We are not certain on this last point, but will be able to speak more positively after a while. At all events, this much is undoubted, that this precious Sunday caucus freighted an Agent—a connection of a U. S. office holder—with blank poll books, in due form, obtained for the purpose from the Pioneer office; and that he started up the country with them, to hold the elections and forge the papers at such place, and in such manner as might seem advisable upon a consultation with the proper parties" up North.

In due course of horse flesh, on Thursday, the 29th of October ult., this agent of the Sunday caucus arrived in Morrison county, at the place generally known as "Swan River Ferry," and at that time and place, it can be proven, had in his possession "Blank returns from Breckinridge, White Oak Lake, Mansfield, and Red Lake," precincts. The Democratic agent for the Sunday caucus there said to sundry parties, whose assistance in the forgeries he solicited: "Sibley is about six hundred votes behind Ramsey, and our friends in St. Paul say it has got to be made up out of Cass, Todd, and Pembina counties," or words to that effect.

A letter from Swan River gives the further proceeding of the "agent" as follows:

Mr.——made out the poll books for Breckinridge in——'s office, and gave H. H. Sibley 169 votes and Ramsey 7.

The poll book for White Oak Lake precinct was forged in the same manner, giving Sibley 47 votes.

The poll book for Mansfield and Red Lake were made out at Crow Wing, and to the best of my belief, were filled up by Jo.——, Mr.——, (the agent) and Mayor ——, a United States Federal office holder.

At Otter Tail City they return 90 votes, where, we all know, there are not ten men.

Here, fellow citizens, you have some of the facts touching the grand conspiracy of the Federal office holder to cheat Mr. Sibley into the gubernatorial chair over Ramsey, who is fairly elected by a majority of the true people of Minnesota.

Foreign Items.

In the library of St. Mark at Venice, there have been discovered nineteen songs by Stradella, the composer. They are love songs which the celebrated musician composed in the palace of Contarini, when he was enamored of the daughter of that patrician, who instigated the other nobles against him. The nineteen pieces are said to be remarkable for their melody and elegance. M. Halevy, the composer of the Juive, has consented to write for them a piano forte accompaniment, in order to render them accessible not only to musicians, but to simple amateurs.

The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times, writes that Charavari, the comic paper of Paris, the French father of the English Punch, "has at last fallen upon Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati." The letter writer says:

"The words "American wine," which are beginning to appear upon the cards of the restaurants, followed by a figure which puts Suresnes and all the petits lieutes to the blush, in point of cheapness, is regarded by "Charivari" as a dangerous innovation, and accordingly he showers down all sorts of anathemas upon the name of Longworth. The presumption of Mr. Longworth, in coming into the heart of a country that lives upon its wine, and undersselling the cheapest (and nastiest) of the home production, is designated by the "Charivari" as an attack upon the sovereign rights of this great country. M. Taxile Delord, who is the author of this article in the "Charivari," beats the reveille, and calls his countrymen to arms against the invader!"

The King of Wurtemburg, says the "Courier de Paris," lived in very citizen-like style at Biarritz, under the name of the Vicomte de Teck. He bathed with the other bathers like a common mortal. The Commissary of Police, whose duty it was to inscribe the names of the bathers in his book, thus filled up the blanks in his printed register: "Christian and Surname," Count de Teck—"Profession," King—"Whence coming," Wurtemburg—"Motive for Traveling," Health and Pleasure."

The Chief Siamese Ambassador who arrived at Portsmouth has fifty-eight wives—but he nevertheless was smitten by the beauty of a young lady whom he saw in the dock-yard at Portsmouth, and offered to purchase her as his fifty-ninth wife for the sum of £8,000.

"A SOBER SECOND THOUGHT."—The Wisconsin thus discourses about the New York Charter Election:

We earnestly hope that the election of such an upright man as TIEMANN, will commence a better era in municipal government. There is not a city in the Union that will not feel the New York election. Tax-payers will reason—If the rogues and robbers can be kept out of the government in so fostering a city as New York, why can they not in Milwaukee, St. Paul, &c.

The influence of a blow at the right time and in the right place, is felt electric-like through all the cities of the Union. Reform, if possible in New York, can be carried out in other cities. During the past ten years, municipal governments in all sections of the Union have been indulging in wasteful extravagance—following the shining example of New York. Now a turn there in the right direction, will sow the seeds of Reform in other cities—from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. The moral of the N. Y. election also proves, that when business men really work and vote, they can rout the loafers and vagabonds whom they too often permit to be elected to the city officers.

That is talking to some purpose. It is but a few weeks, however, since the Wisconsin elaborately justified the high taxes in our city, and attacked the Sentinel for finding fault, with them. A "sober second thought" seems to have corrected its first view of the subject, and led it to concur with the Sentinel.

☞ Rev. EPHRAIM NUTE went to Lawrence, Kansas, to establish a Religious Society. He was a peaceful and amiable man, a Christian and a friend of Liberty. He was robbed of property worth $5000 by the political ruffians of Missouri, and his brother-in-law was killed and scalped on a wager made by the murderer that he would have a free State scalp before night. Both the robber and murderer are well known. One has been acquitted on a mock trial and the other was appointed a postmaster soon after Buchanan's accession. Mr. Nute is now on a visit to the East. His property has never been restored to him.

"SPEARING OF KANSAS."—The News of yesterday devotes a column to "Kansas shrieking," and adheres to its position on that question, the Washington Union and Madison Argus to the contrary notwithstanding. We encourage the News to persevere in its new vocation, and we do not doubt it if it sticks to its text and maintains its integrity, it will come to be a very respectable shrieker."

POPULATION OF MINNESOTA.—The following statistics of Steel Co., Minnesota, give an indication of the constituent elements of the new state to the north west of us;

From the New York Tribune

Shall we Import Wheat?

With a bounteous crop of cereals it would be a very curious result, particularly while the country is groaning under a load of debt for an excess of importations, if we should import into the city of New York, during the approaching winter, our breadstuffs from the ports of the Black Sea. Let us see what the chance is, because such will be the case if it will pay; not pay the country in a political economy point of view, but if it will pay the individual who may invest his dollars in that speculation.

We are told that in consequence of the financial difficulties, the usual operators in the grain markets of the West have failed to send forward a supply sufficient to serve the wants of the seaboard during the winter, and that it is now too late to send out funds, if we had them, to get wheat from Chicago before the lakes and canals will freeze up, and consequently the price of flour will advance just as much as the price of freight is higher upon the rails than upon the navigable waters. Probably that is a fact, and taking it for granted, we should that all who can would act wisely to buy their winter supply now.

The financial difficulty is not the only thing that has kept back western grain. Owing to the high prices of former years, and the general independent condition of farmers—that is, they are not generally in want of money for anything but to pay store bills for goods bought on credit, or to buy more land, both of which they are willing to postpone rather than sell their grain at lower price than last year—many of them have their crops yet in stack unthreshed. At last reports, the price of wheat was 64 to 66 cents a bushel for spring grain at Chicago, while at New York the price is quoted, for Ohio wheat $1,16 to $1,30; Michigan wheat $1,15 to $1,25; western mixed $1,05 to $1 27; western red 98c to $1,26. If these rates should advance fifty cents a bushel here, which is very likely, will that benefit the Illinois or Indiana farmer the fiftieth part of that sum? On the contrary it may be an injury to him, because it may induce speculators to import wheat from Odess. At our last advices from that port we find that, owing to the very rainy weather and bad state of the roads, the price of wheat was unusually high; yet here are the quotations in sterling currency, not only at Odessa, but several other European and African ports, per 8 bushels:

Odessa,	32 4	48 3	32 4	50 6
Ghiska,			43 9	47 3

Sea of Azof ports,			41 7	42 9

Hamburg and Bremen,			56 0	60 0
Frankfort,			55 3	55 3
St. Petersburgh,
Cabanna,			58 0
Other wheat,			44 3
London, average prices,			53 9

At London, for wheat from Odessa, cost and freight, 50s; from England, white wheat, 58 to 62s; red 52 to 58s; Dantzig mixed 60 to 68s; Taganrog 51s6d to 62s6d; Sandomiska 49s2d per 492 pounds; Black Sea wheat generally, 50 to 52s.

The supply of grain is so abundant in Greece, that exportations are permitted. In the sea of Azof the price is high, the supply being small on account of the heavy rains. And this is the case in all the Black Sea ports, yet it does not appear to average more than 36s per imperial quarter, or about $1 per bushel of our measure. And now with an equal prospect, that wheat will fall as much at Odessa as it will rise at Chicago, and that both are alike valuable for food, let us see how the case stands.

The present rate of freight per rail from Chicago to New York is one dollar per cwt.; that is sixty cents a bushel for wheat, making a cost $1 26 a bushel, delivered. The winter rate of freight will be at least 10 per cent higher, advancing the price to $1 32½ bushel. The present cost of wheat at Odessa, of equal or better quality than Chicago average, being $1 a bushel, and the rate of freight twenty cents a bushel, how stands the account? Why, twelve cents a bushel against the Illinois farmer, who is holding on for higher prices, and flattering himself that his wheat is to be exported across the Atlantic and sold at a profit of six cents a bushel upon present rates of freight, or twelve cents upon the lowest rates that can be counted upon as soon as navigation closes.

We presume that vessels can be chartered on the other side, so as to deliver their cargoes here by the first of February; or that some of the hundreds of idle ships in this port could be had on contract to go and return before the 1st of March, or a month before canals and lakes are open, and arrive at the time when we may expect the greatest scarcity, if there is to be one, of wheat and flour in this city.

Now, we put the question to western farmers: with such facts as these before you, is it wise to hold your wheat for higher prices? In language that some of you who have opened your farms out of the woods will understand, we ask—is the game worth the powder? If it is, hold on, and trust to luck, not common sense.

It does not look to us very probable that any man who knows enough to tell buckwheat from beans, is very likely to pay 2 per cent a month for money to invest in wheat or flour at present prices, to hold for a rise, while the Atlantic and Black Sea are open now with an abundance of money on the other side, to send over quantities of wheat, just so sure as the price is very materially enhanced above the present quotations.

Let the fool go headlong—the wise man will pause and think. We have given him food for thought.

EXTENT OF THE REBELLION IN INDIA.—The Albany Eve. Journal remarks that there are upwards of two hundred Native Kings and Princes under British protection in India. Not one of them could be coaxed to join the Mutineers at Delhi. The Maharajahs of Holkar and Scindia protected the British Officers from the bayonets of their own Sepoys, and British families from the knives of their own servants. The Princess of Rajpootna, Malwa, Bundelcund and Gujerat sent messengers to the British camps with assurances of loyalty. The Sikhs of the Punjaub have fought from the first under the British flag. The Rajahs of Nepaul and Cashmere kept open the British lines of communication, and supplied provisions to the British Commissioners. Only three native rulers have been in arms against the English Government—the old Mogul at Delhi, the dethroned King of Oude, and the butcher Nana Sahib. Of the three only one is a Hindoo, the other two being Mohommedans. Had it been a popular rising instead of an Army Mutiny—had all the native Sovereigns and their subjects entered the field against the British, there would not now be an Englishman left alive from Cape Comorin to the Hymalaya Mountains, and it would take a century of War to restore British rule.

Money on call is very abundant, and large quantities can be had on railroad securities at 6@7 per cent. and on state stock at 4@5 per cent. The banks are discounting liberally, but exercise great circumspection as to the character of the paper they use; and in the statement to-morrow, their discount line, it is believed, will not vary materially from last week's aggregate.

MR. BUCHANAN HELPING MAYOR WOOD.—The Washington Union of the 27th ult. contained a very elaborate article urging the support of Mayor Wood, as a test of Democratic orthodoxy, and rebuking those members of the party who were opposing his re-election. This official fact, however, did not save Wood. Party bonds have lost their quondam strength, and people are beginning to vote pretty much as they please.

From the Richmond Enquirer, 25th.

About 1 P. M. yesterday we were astonished to see the monster box, containing the bronze equestrian statute of Washington, moving briskly up the heavy grade of Ninth street, on Mr. J. R. Anderson's solid broad iron wheel wagon, drawn by the hands and hearts of more than a thousand of our citizens, including all ages.—The box, weighing 19 tons, was conveyed from the head of the dock along Seventeenth street to Main—and there, the horses showing a want of power, the people took boldly possession of the immense case, and amid joyous shoutings carried it up Main to Ninth, along Ninth to Broad, along Broad to Tenth, and thence through an opening in the iron railing into its proper place in front of the monument. It was a grand and delightful spectacle, as the mountain box, drawn by hundreds of the citizens, with agent McCloo and Captain Sam Freeman and Corporal Krischman, of the Blues, with their flag, on the wagon in front, overcame all obstacles, and was safely landed, amidst enthusiastic cheerings. Only a few moments sufficed for the crowd to tear up the iron railing and curb-stones and contiguous trees, to make a passage into the square. The mayor of the city was raised to the top of the box, and after a neat speech, urged the people to call the Governor out. Gov. Wise could not resist the hearty entreaties of the besieging crowd, (who guarded all the exits to the capitol) and escorted by the Mayor, was welcomed by the crowd, who, by the aid of a rope and their own shoulders, elevated him on the box. Just then salutes were fired by detachments of the Blues and Young Guard, and patriotic airs performed by the Armory Band. The Governor stood beneath the "stars and stripes," held up by a number of citizens, and addressed the immense audience with eloquence and powerful effect. After a few pertinent remarks from Capt. Dimmock, Captain of the Public Guard, and Mr. Mayo, the crowd dispersed, leaving the box safely in its proper place. We have never seen a more picturesque and animating spectacle—the more so as it was entirely unexpected by everybody.

FORTY-TWO YEARS AT SEA.—Capt. Bowers of the bark Mary Broughton, now in port, has been forty-two years at sea, thirty-two of which he has been captain, and during all that long period never experienced any serious disaster, nor never noted a protest. A sailor never left him in a foreign port; he never sent a man to the hospital, never buried a man at sea, nor never had a lawsuit. These facts speak volumes in his favor.—They show that he knows how to treat men, and hence their devotion. We know more than one captain who never carry even their officers a whole voyage, and who pride themselves upon being considered "tartars!"

Although Capt. Bowers never was in a ship which touched bottom, nor in one which lost a main spar, it must not be supposed that he never experienced the storms and hurricanes peculiar to the sea. In the West Indies he has seen whole fleets of vessels driven upon the keys and banks, and hundred of lives lost, and upon our own coast has suffered the severe storms of many a Winter; but, protected by a kind Providence, he says he has been always enabled to bring his vessel safely into port. This, by many, may be considered good luck; but in no situation of life is good luck more nearly allied to good management than at sea.

Captain Bowers says that under Providence he has many times saved his vessels when beset by storms, by having previously arranged in his mind how to act. Pleasant weather is the season for thought—storms and disaster the time for action.

In health Captain Bowers has been as remarkable as in the success of his voyage. He never had toothache, rheumatism, headache nor fever. Last voyage, for the first time, he sustained personal damage. The spanker boom, in lacking ship, struck him on the head so severe that he was unconscious for several days; but now he is as healthy as ever, and bids fair to live his "three score and ten," and ten more, without troubling his friends to take care of him.

High as he ranks among the sons of the ocean as a successful sailor, he is not le s esteemed ashore by those who know him best. A single incident will show the man better than a yarn as long as the main-top-bowline. He was once censured by one of the owners of a vessel which he commanded because he positively refused to take a doubtful custom-house oath. "Why," said the man of commerce, "they were only a pack of Spaniards." "True," replied the captain, "but I was not swearing to the Spaniards, but to God, and God you know, is everywhere present, and is not a respecter of persons. I could not swear to a thing that was not true."

Capt. Bowers still commands the bark Mary Broughton, and will sail hence in a few days for Buenos Ayres. May he continue successful to the end of life's chapter, and find comfortable quarters aloft when he has slipped his earthly moorings.—[Boston Traveller.
